Captain Monkey

Fun Halloween Apparel Giveaway

Halloween is one of my very favorite Holidays. I love to decorate for it and I love my kids to dress for it. Captain Monkey has some very fun, fresh clothing for kids to show off their Halloween Spirit. I love their selection of hip clothes! From graphic tees to rockin' button down shirts, your boys will quickly become trendsetters in their fashion forward clothing. The designs of Esther Marie and her line Captain Monkey are a favorite among celebrities.

My kids absolutely love the clothing and are excited to wear them out and about. I received a couple of items to check out from Captain Monkey and I am excited to get to offer you a giveaway, too! One very lucky Macaroni Kid reader is going to win two great items (one short sleeve and one button down shirt) from Captain Monkey for the season. To enter, send me your child's shirt size to maryannj@macaronikid.com and tell me an item you like from their website. For an additional 5 entries, become a fan on facebook and email me telling me you did to get the credit. Winner will be picked from eligible entries. MUST be a Macaroni Kid subscriber to be eligible.

You can find Captain Monkey clothing at www.Mylittletrendsetter.com.
